WHY OWNERS DON'T ASK

It's not the IRS they're afraid of. It's the conversation.

- [ ] Talking about their kids
- [ ] Talking about their money problems
- [ ] Showing a stranger their income

And they don't know what they don't know.

So they don't know what to bring.

That part's easy. →

WHAT TO BRING

A good second opinion starts with two things.

ONE

Last year's return

TWO

This year's numbers so far

No binder. No prep. That's it.

WHAT IT SHOULD FEEL LIKE

☐ It doesn't tear down your current team.

☑ It shows you what you could still decide.

You keep the relationship. You just see more.

REMEMBER

Your return is a report card, not a strategy.

Keep the relationship. Don't switch.
But at least get a second opinion.
